

Inoculating Loops

Inoculating Loops offered by MOLEQULE-ON are sterile and of premium quality. These are made of polypropylene and widely used in transferring bacterial culture without the risk of contamination. The loop end uniformly and smoothly streak on a gel surface avoiding the risk of gel tearing. Inoculating loops are individually packaged in peel-pack.

Ordering Info
Cat No.	Product	Packaging
ILP-M-500	Inoculating Loops (10ul)	Case of 500